Re: Francisco Silvestrini

To Whom It May Concern:

As one of the Reading Teachers, I have had the pleasure of knowing David Alejandro Perez for these past two years. I have seen him in the capacity of student aide and Hispanic National Honor Society and Engineering Club member. He is an industrious student and a whirlwind. He has only been in this country for only two years and has accomplished an outstanding amount of merits. He has a knack for athletics and socializing. He has participated in various clubs, Coconut Grove Sailing Club and Engineering, Spanish clubs at Ronald Reagan. He delves in the world of sailing, swimming and water polo. David is perseverant and extremely social. He has no qualms on obstacles and pushes forward. He initiates ideas and is able to lead a team forward towards implementation. He communicates with his peers and classmates constantly and tries always to listen to their suggestions and complaints; handling each situation as it comes along. I would like to take this opportunity to recommend David for your program.

I feel confident that he will continue to succeed in his studies and wow the world in his future endeavors. David is a dedicated student, observant and has worked in various capacities within the sailing community. He proves to be a "go-getter" who is able to successfully work with others and help those in need. His charisma and dynamic character brings a smile to my face every time he walks into class.

His passion for achievement is consuming and vibrates through his being and those around him.

It is for these reasons that I offer high recommendations for David Alejandro Perez without reservation.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Marilyn Gonzalez
